The LA SCORES Cup is the annual premier corporate charity soccer tournament of the southland, benefiting America Scores LA, bringing over 700 soccer players from many of LA's top companies such as Apple, Verizon, Warner Brothers, Fox Sports, East West Bank, AEG, JP Morgan, Accenture, HBO and Starbucks, all competing for the crown of LA's top corporate soccer team at the Dignity Health Super Turf Fields in Carson, the home of the LA Galaxy. Now in our 15th year running, this truly unique event is a tremendous opportunity for corporations to have fun, sharpen your competitive edge, and make a difference in the America SCORES LA after-school program.
